Says Pyramid Flours; find us thing for said mother.

After Christmas Campbell merchants are lost in relating their stocks of Winter goods. Too naturally and quick to suit the most trampling Bargain Lover ago you discovered the biggest Economies. The most glaringly absurd propositions were made in print by such dealers as you have had reason to suppose were most conservative.

ATWOOD

Suppose that you HATE A CARE for clothing stocks who offer SALES Overcoats for $12.50, and other goods with equally absurd propositions. Don't you see at a glance that's "FISHING" ABOUT THE ORIGINAL PRICES? Remember, houses of established reputation for correctly offer you the best protection, the surest money-saving inducements.

"The Tribune's" Four Prize Stories

Are announced for publication in the immediate future. The particulars of the competition are known to every one. The winner of the first prize was

Edith Sessions Tupper,

And the name of her story is

"By a Hair's Breadth."

It is a romance of Chicago, tersely and graphically told, and dealing with characters and localities that are familiar to all Chicagoans. Its publication will be begun in

The Sunday Tribune of Dec. 30.

The opportunities that Chicago offers as a field of fiction are inferior to those of no other city on earth. Its progress has been unparalleled; its catastrophes have appalled the world; its population is representative of all countries of the globe; and its

Works of Fiction

Should equal in dignity its achievement, embodying its spirit, and transmitting to future generations the story of its rise to splendor. To encourage

Home Talent

To fill so faithful a field, THE TRIBUNE offered prizes for the most stirring tales of Chicago, and the results are now submitted to THE TRIBUNE'S readers in the shape of

Four Great Stories,

The first of which, entitled

"By a Hair's Breadth,"

Will appear in

The Sunday Tribune of Dec. 30.

The stories which will be published on successive Sundays are

"Theodora,"
By Mrs. Fanny E. Newberry.

"Caton's Problems,"
By Miss Annie H. Adams.

"Romance of a Rich Young Man,"
By Mr. Curtis Dunham.
